

EARCOS-Sponsored Professional Learning Weekend

Compass Education Level 1 - Practitioner Certification Workshop

Thinking, Learning and Acting for a Flourishing and Sustainable World

Who should attend:

- Teachers & program leaders who want to integrate sustainability & systems thinking into their teaching practice.
- Curriculum leaders & principals who want to gain understanding of what the practical application of sustainability education looks like.

Result:

Participants will understand:

- What sustainability is, including the four systems conditions
- The nexus of sustainability & education
- The importance of complexity & systems in interpreting the world
- The concept of systems

Participants will be able to:

- Use Systems Thinking tools with students
- Use Systems Thinking tools in their personal lives
- Integrate Systems Thinking into unit and lesson planning

Sat-Sun

1-2

September

2018

Trainer:
Teresa Tung/Cindy Chen

Wells International School
Bangkok, Thailand

Course fee:

2,400 baht ($75 USD)

(For EARCOS member schools only)

REGISTER
HERE

For more info, visit
wp.me/P4ncii-17d

For any queries, email katina.g@wells-school.com

